

Please do not allow Low Power FM to override our translator stations. There are enough big "taped from New York" radio stations as is. We like our small, local, hometown news/weather/sports and music stations. Do not allow LPFM to take over and "corporatize" our listening rights.